

Brand Book

I like me as I am, so please don't change me.

Primary logo

The primary logo of the brand is the full-color logomark, together with the logotype. Always use the logo files provided. The logotype should be black or white.

Logo misuse

- Do not change the proportions
- Do not distort the logo
- Do not use different colors
- Do not re-create using any other typeface
- Do not crop the logo

Logo usage on backgrounds

- The full-color logo should only be used on very light or very dark backgrounds. Don't place the logo on top of mid-tones.
- Avoid using the full-color logo on top of a photograph, unless it sits on a very light or very dark area of the image.

One-color logo

- The full-color logo is our primary logo.
- The one-color logo should be only black or white.
- When used on a photograph, place the logo on a very light or very dark area of the image.

Logomark

The logomark is legible in most sizes and a small version is provided for micro applications.

Logo clear space

The rule of thumb is to use 75% of the logomark height as your guide for clear space around the logo.

Logo minimum size

Our logo should never be hard to read or recognize.
To retain legibility, never go below the minimum size shown.

Primary colors

Our primary color palette is a major part of Overflow's brand identity. As such, it should be the default choice for any brand-focused or promotional material.

Text should always be set in black, white, or dark purple #161637 for accent.
